

The Mr.DIRTcar Pro-Stock series stops this Friday night at Edelweiss Speedway

Cantley, PQ – Wednesday, September 9, 2009 – Martin Bélanger – Edelweiss Speedway will be the host of the fifth race of the MrDIRTcar Pro-Stock Series this Friday, September 11. Also on the schedule, a 50-lap feature for the Semi-Pro along with a special 15-lap wet track enduro race with the Mod-Lite also planned on the schedule.

More than 20 cars are expected to compete in the 100-lap feature event in which the winner will collect $1,500 for the win. It is the second highest purse to be given after the race at Super DIRT Week. Pete Stefanski is currently first in point, followed by Joey Ladouceur who seems to be on a hot streak lately. Don Carlson from Connecticut, USA is third. Local runner Stéphane Lebrun from Gatineau currently sits in 8th spot in the points and would like to leave with the winning trophy after Friday.

A long distance race awaits the Semi-Pro drivers with a 50-lap feature event; the purse will also be raised with the winner leaving with $600. Nearly 20 drivers are expected to be in the pits for this race paying over $3,000 in total purse.

A 15-lap wet track enduro was added for the people who would like to try their cars before the annual enduro scheduled on Saturday, September 19. The Mod-Lite will be the fourth class during that night of event.

General admission will be 15$ for adults, 11$ for students and seniors and kids 12 years and under will get in for free. Pit admission will be $25 for people for 13 years old and plus and 5$ for kids 12 years and under. Time trial for Pro-Stock are scheduled for 7pm and the first heat will occur at 7:30pm. Be there!
