

Eric Gauvreau wins his third feature of the season at Edelweiss Speedway!

Cantley, PQ – Friday July 10, 2009 – Martin Bélanger – After a week off because of bad weather, racing action was back at Edelweiss Speedway with a complete race program along with the third race of the Fondations BRL Modified Series and Toitures Marcel Raymond Semi-Pro Series, this class had a 25-lap feature event. Also on the card, the Mod-Lite had double features with also the 4-cylinders to close out this evening sponsored by Harley-Davidson de l'Outaouais.

In the 30-lap modified feature, Denis Gauvreau took the early lead with Philippe Landry and Denis Larocque in the top 3. Larocque took second on Landry on the second lap. Bobby Herrington and Pierre Dagenais were now in the top 5 with 5 laps done. Landry and Larocque were doing a good battle for second while Gauvreau was alone in the front with 10 laps in the book. Eric Gauvreau was now in the mix for second as he took this spot with an outside move at the halfway point. Eric took the top spot over his brother Denis on the next lap. Dan Jalbert brought the first caution on lap 21. On the restart, Eric Gauvreau stayed in front while Pierre Dagenais and Bobby Herrington quickly took second and third. Gauvreau led the final laps to win his third feature of the season over Dagenais, Herrington, Gage Morin and Denis completed the top 5. Herrington and Dagenais had won the heat races.

A field of 17 cars took the green in the 25-lap Semi-Pro feature as Guy Regimbald and Alex Gagnon were doing battle for the lead when an 3-car accident occurred in turn 2 on lap 1. Régimbald stayed first but Mark Trudeau passed him using the inside lane au 2e tour. Another accident occurred in the backstretch on lap 4. Trudeau had a good start over Bruno Boivin and Alex Gagnon, Nico Leblanc was pretty strong and passed Gagnon for third on the sixth lap. Jonathan Galipeau brought the caution on lap 8. Trudeau got a strong start over the field and led the next 2 laps when Kevin Jodoin slowed and yellow was back out. Trudeau was in front while Boivin and Leblanc were doing battle for second with less than 10 laps to go. Jason Lamothe spun out in the front stretch and the race was slowed on lap 17. Trudeau still in the lead as Leblanc took second on Boivin with 5 to go. Trudeau led the final laps to win his second feature of the season over Leblanc and Boivin completed the podium. Sébastien Bigras, Stéphane Carrière and Bruno Boivin won the heat races.

Patrick Pronovost took the lead in the 12-lap Mod-Lite feature with Dean Pronovost and Richard Renaud in third. Pronovost stopped in turn 2 on lap to bring the first yellow. Pat Pronovost stayed first but another caution came on lap 7. Dean Pronovost regrab the lead on the following green but Pat Pronovost was able to pass his father to win his first feature over Dean and Richard Renaud. Dean Pronovost had won the heat.

In the postponed Mod-Lite feature of June 26, Dave Bell took the early lead as Dean Pronovost got closer to him but Bell was able to resist to win his first feature of the season over Pronovost, Richard Renaud completed the podium.

Alexandre Pilon led the 12-lap 4-cylinder feature and won his third feature of the season in front of Gabriel Mercier and Jean-Marc Larose. Larose had won the heat race.

One of the biggest show of the season next week at the speedway with the second visit of the Empire Super Sprints, Tommy Wickham had won the race in June. The sprint cars are always spectacular when they come to Edelweiss. Also on the card, a complete race program along with the 4-wheeler. The Modifieds and Mod-Lite will have a night off. General Admission will be 20$ for adults, 16$ for students and seniors and kids 12 years and under will get in for free. Be there!
