

Steve Poirier wins the Empire Super Sprints Feature at Edelweiss Speedway

Cantley, PQ – Friday July 17, 2009 – Martin Bélanger (collaboration of Sébastien Chabot) – Edelweiss Speedway was the host of the second visit of the Empire Super Sprints, along with the sprints, the Semi-Pro, 4-cylinder and 4-wheeler categories were also in action on Coors Light Night.

In the 25-lap Empire Super Sprints feature, the series champion, Steve Poirier lead all the laps in the feature to win his second race of the season. An important accident occurred early in the race as Lee Ladouceur caused a red flag at the same place of Normand Beaudreault on June 12, Ladouceur was uninjured. Alain Bergeron, Jeff Cook, Tommy Wickham and Lance Yonge completed the top 5. Justin Barger, Alain Bergeron and Tommy Wickham won the heats.

Mark Trudeau, point's leader in the Semi-Pro category, won the 15-lap feature, a third win for him this season. Nico Leblanc rolled over at the halfway point he was ok. Sébastien Bigras finished second and Bruno Boivin completed the podium. Alain Proulx and Nico Leblanc won the heat races.

Another perfect night for Alexandre Pilon as we won his fourth feature of the season in front of Gabriel Mercier and Martin Lagacé, Pilon also won the heat race.

In the 4-wheeler categories, Jonathan Jans and Martin Berard continued their domination in their respective class.

Another great program next week with the visit of the Lightning sprint car series a smaller version of the ESS Sprint car. Also a complete race program in all other regular categories along with a 15-lap wet track enduro at the end of the night sponsored by Boucherie du Village.
