

Pierre Dagenais wins second race in a row at Autodrome Edelweiss

Cantley, PQ – Friday June 19, 2009 – Martin Bélanger – The Edelweiss Speedway presented a complete race program with the 4-wheelers also in competition. Unfortunately, the World of Outlaws Late Model dash for cash could not be presented because of damage done to the cars at the Ohsweken speedway last night. Hino Gatineau presented this night.

Dan Jalbert took the early lead in the 30-lap modified feature with Bobby Herrington on his backbumper, Jalbert was able to resist s and took a few car lead. Pierre Dagenais was now fourth with a good move on Landry. The first caution came out on lap 8 for Pat Cashman. On the restart, an accident occurred in turn 1 and a complete restart had to go. On the following green, Pierre Dagenais took the lead over Jalbert with Herrington still in third. Denis Gauvreau brought the yellow on lap 11 with a flat tire. Dagenais stays on top while Jalbert and Herrington does a good battle with Alain Boisvert now in the mix. Dagenais had a full straight lead over Jalbert with 10 laps to go. Herrington was able to take the second spot on Jalbert when caution came out for Philippe Landry. Dagenais still first with Herrington in second and Boisvert now third, he had company with Eric Gauvreau. Dan Jalbert stopped in front of the grandstands with 5 laps to go. On the restart, Gauvreau took second spot on Herrington while Dagenais was still first. Dagenais led the final laps to win his second consecutive feature over Gauvreau, Herrington, Doiron and Boisvert completed the podium. Philippe Landry and Dan Jalbert won the heat races.

In the 15-lap Semi-Pro feature, Nico Leblanc was the early leader with Steve Gagné in second and Jeff Philipps in third when Gagné spins in turn 2. Leblanc stays in first with Guy Régimbald in second and Bruno Boivin in third. Leblanc had built himself a comfortable lead with 5 laps in the books. Régimbald who was running second had trouble and lost several positions, while a great battle for second occurred between Boivin and Trudeau and both went to pits with 2 laps to go. Leblanc led the final lap to win his second feature of the season over Sébastien Bigras and Jeff Philipps completed the podium. Leblanc had a perfect night winning the first heat Philipps won the second.

The best field of the season in the 4-cylinder category started the 12-lap feature. Jean-Marc Larose took the early lead with Alexandre Pilon following him closely; Martin Lagacé joined the group in third. Pilon took the lead with an outside move on lap 5. Jean-

Marc Larose who was second brought the first caution of the race. Pilon stays in front with Lagacé in second when Serge Bédard brought the caution on lap 9. Pilon led the final laps to win his second feature of the season with Lagacé and Gabriel Mercier completing the podium. Martin Lagacé won the heat race.

The night started with last weeks 12-lap 4-cylinder feature. Jean-Marc Larose was the initial leader when Alexandre Pilon took the lead on the second lap and led the following laps to win his second feature of the year over Gabriel Mercier and Jean-Marc Larose.

In the 4-wheeler races, Jonathan Jans, Matthew Pynenburg and Jean-Charles Desjardins completed the top 3 in the 4 strokes. Martin Bérard, Lee Bower and Daniel Legendre in the 2 strokes.

Next week the speedway will host the second race of the Mohawk Race Parts Pro-Stock series, this will be the first of two visits for these drivers, the best of Quebec and Ontario will be here for this 50-lap feature race. A complete race program is also on the schedule on Benson night.
