

2-car shows for Edelweiss Speedway in the upcoming weeks!

Cantley, PQ – Monday, March 29, 2010 – Martin Bélanger - Race fans that want to accumulate some free time during the summer will have 2 good reasons to collect them as the Edelweiss Speedway will have 2-car shows in the next weeks.

The first one will be held at the Promenades de l'Outaouais from Friday, April 30 to Sunday, May 2nd with 6 cars on hand to give you first taste of the next season. An information booth and staff of the speedway will be there to answer questions.

The weekend after Edelweiss Speedway will be at the Galeries d'Aylmer from Thursday, May 6 to Sunday, May 9 with 4 to 8 cars at the mall during this weekend. Again information will be available during the show.

Season passes will be at a special rate during these 2 events, the admission general pass will be at 180$ instead of $200 and the pit passes will be at $275 instead of $300. Fans that will visit the shows will have a chance to win via a special draw.

For more details on the upcoming season, we invite you to visit the speedway website at www.autodromeedelweiss.com