

Edelweiss Speedway will be Les Promenades de l'Outaouais shopping centre this week-end!

Cantley, PQ – Tuesday, April 27, 2010 – Martin Bélanger - Race fans that want to have a preview of the upcoming season might want to stop by the Promenades de l'Outaouais shopping centre this week-end starting on Friday morning with 6 cars on display until the closing of the mall on Sunday afternoon.

All the regular classes will be represented during the 3-day show, Eric and Denis Gauvreau in the modified, Mark Trudeau in the Semi-Pro, Dean Pronovost in the Mod-Lite and Gabriel Mercier in the Mini-Stock will be there along with the official pace car of the speedway. Speedway staff will there all weekend long to answer questions about the fast approaching season.

Season passes will be at a special rate during this event, the admission general pass will be at 180$ instead of $200 and the pit passes will be at $275 instead of $300.

Fans that will visit the show will have a chance to win prizes via a special draw. A general admission season pass, 4 accesses to a corporate suite for 1 night and a pair of pit access ticket will also be given. Some gifts will be distributed throughout the weekend.

Opening hours for the mall are from 9:30am to 9:00pm on Friday, 9:00am to 5pm on Saturday and from noon to 5pm on Sunday. For more information on Les Promenades shopping centre, you can visit their website at www.lespromenades.com. For more details on the upcoming season, we invite you to visit the speedway website at www.autodromeedelweiss.com

See you there this weekend!