

Stephane Lafrance wins his second feature in a row at Edelweiss Speedway!

Cantley, PQ – Friday May 28, 2010 – Martin Bélanger – Edelweiss Speedway presented another great night of racing action with a complete race program in all categories including the first race of the Toitures Marcel Raymond Series in the Semi-Pro class, they had a 25-lap feature race. The Chartrand Yamaha 4-wheeler series was also on the schedule on this night sponsored by Imprimerie Brisson.

Denis Gauvreau took the early lead in the 30-lap modified feature followed by Stéphane Lafrance and Brian McDonald who had a 3-way battle with Pierre Dagenais and Luke Whitteker. Lafrance was now running side by side with Gauvreau for the lead, Lafrance used the inside lane to take the lead on lap 6. While Lafrance was running alone in front when Pat Cashman rolled over in turn 4 and this brought the red flag on lap 18. Lafrance kept the lead with Dagenais now second and Eric Gauvreau running in third. Dagenais got closer to Lafrance with only 2 laps to go. Lafrance was able to resist and won his second feature in a row over Dagenais and Gauvreau completed the podium.

In the 25-lap Semi-Pro feature, 15 cars took the green flag; John Benard was the early leader with Kevin Jodoin and Stéphane Carrière following him closely. While Benard was running alone in front, a 3-way battle was occurring for second spot. Benard stopped in turn 4 and lost his lead to Jodoin as caution came out on lap 7. Carrière got the lead with Benoit Dubois taking second spot and Nico Leblanc now third after starting way back. Alain Proulx spun out in turn 4 and yellow was out on lap 10. Carrière had a good jump but caution came back out. Carrière alone in front with Nico Leblanc now in second when Alex Gagnon had problems with his car and brought the caution, Leblanc had to head to the pits on this same yellow for a flat tire. Carrière still in the lead but a hard charging Bruno Boivin came from the back and took the lead using the outside lane on lap 14. Carrière slowed and the yellow came back out on lap 16. Boivin had a great start over Mark Trudeau now running second after several leaders heading to the pits. Boivin and Trudeau got away from the field with Alex Gagnon now in third spot. On the last lap, Trudeau hit the wall and lost his second spot, Bruno Boivin led the last laps to win the feature over Alex Gagnon, Nico Leblanc, Guy Regimbald and André Mainville completed the top 5.

Charles Legendre led all the laps in the 12-lap Mod-Lite feature and captured his second feature of the season in front Richard Renaud and Dean Pronovost completed the podium.

In the 12-lap Mini-Stock Feature, Jean-Marc Larose and Gabriel Mercier went at it on the first lap and ran side by side for 5 laps when caution came out for debris on the track. Larose led the finale laps to win his second feature in a row in front of Mercier and Jonathan Touchette completes the top 3.

An important show next Friday with the 3rd edition of the Canadian Cancer Society Fundraiser with a 50-lap Syracuse Qualifier for the Modifieds plus a complete race program in all the other categories as the Mini-Stock will have a night off. Nearly $9,000 in total has been collected over the first two editions. It is a night not to be missed!
