

The Immovex Lightning Mini-Sprints and the Weekend Warriors EDG Equipment/Gauvreau Top-Soil Series shares the spotlight at Edelweiss this Friday!

Cantley, QC – Tuesday, June 22, 2010 – Martin Bélanger – Edelweiss Speedway will host the Lightning Mini-Sprint Immovex Series this Friday, June 25 along with the first series race of the Weekend Warriors EDG Equipment/Gauvreau Top-Soil in the modifieds plus a complete race program including Chartrand Yamaha 4-wheeler events with a kids tire race at intermission time with the Mini-Stock class having a night off.

The Immovex Lightning Mini-Sprints Series makes a stop in Edelweiss after a year off because Mother Nature did not cooperate in 2009. Between 20 and 25 cars are expected for his event, these vehicles are run with a motorcycle engine and are a carbon copy of a sprint car but at a smaller scale. They reach good speed and always offer a good show to the fans.

The Weekend Warriors EDG Equipment/Gauvreau Top-Soil Series starts this Friday with the first of four races between Edelweiss and Brockville modified drivers. A point's fund of $2,000 will be given out at the end of the 4-race series and will be divided between the top 5 drivers in the points. A 30-lap feature race is on the schedule and should attract new drivers. The series will continue the following night at Brockville Ontario Speedway.

To complete a busy night, the Semi-Pro and Mod-Lite classes will have a regular night along with Chartrand Yamaha 4-Wheeler races. A total of 5 categories will be in action as the Mini-Stock will have a night off. Kids will have a kid's tire race during intermission time.

General Admission costs will be 15$ for adults, 11$ for students and seniors and kids 12 years old and under will be admitted for free. Pit admission fee will be 25$ for adults and kids 12 and under will pay 5$ to get in the pit area. The pit gates will open their doors at 6pm with the general admission opening at 6:30pm. For more information on the next race at Edelweiss, you can visit the speedway website at www.autodromeedelweiss.com